SELLER DESCRIPTION

Mitsubishi Outlander is more like a sport-utility than a boring old crossover, and that's a good thing. Agile handling; useful rear tailgate/liftgate design; roomy cargo area. The Outlander drives and feels like a car and I get most times 27mpg (highway) although mpg is not an issue here. It starts and runs well. The trunk is huge, and the radio sounds great. Seats are comfortable. Handling is superb. The CVT is a bit growly and low speeds and RPM, but once the car is moving it is fine. CR Options...
